

SUE TOMLINSON REID SCHOLARSHIP

Sue Ann Tomlinson Reid (10/11/1944 – 3/17/2019) was a well-respected geologist, paleontologist, member of Mensa, pioneer of women in geoscience, and staunch advocate of geoscience education.

PBS-SEPM established the Sue Tomlinson Reid Scholarship to promote and encourage female participation in geoscience careers, excellence in education, and strong work ethic. The scholarship is supported by donations of PBS-SEPM members who have contributed over the years. Special consideration may be given to applicants who reflect Sue's interests in sedimentology, paleontology, stratigraphy, carbonate geology, advanced research, the Permian Basin, energy supplies, geosciences and/or public community involvement.

Qualifications:

- Female high school senior entering an Earth Science program or college/university student pursuing a degree in Earth Sciences
- Outstanding scholastic achievement
- Evidence of strong work ethic
- Past recipients of the Sue Reid Scholarship may re-apply for the scholarship, provided they meet the criteria above.

Submission Guidelines:

- Email applications and supporting documents to admin@pbs-sepm.org.
- To submit by mail, send application and supporting documents to:

PBS-SEPM
Scholarship Committee
2900 W. Front. St.
Midland, TX 79701

- Letters of recommendation should be mailed or emailed directly from the reference to the Scholarship Committee. At least one reference should be familiar with the student's academic work, and neither reference should be related to the applicant.
- Applications, supporting documents, and letters of recommendation must be submitted or postmarked by the deadline of April 7, 2023.
